3. O child of light, you won - der why In dark - ness ev - 'ry
4. O child of peace, you won - der why Such hat - red tears the
5. Be com - fort - ed, O child of woe: Your Fa - ther knows your live, to die; Re - mem - ber you are not a - lone, And does not mend, And e - ven those you love must die. Why day you stride And man - y who would lead you lie And world a - part As par - ents grieve and or - phans cry And pain and fear. There is no place that you can go Where when the seed of love has grown, With joy, you're go - ing home.

can't we see be - yond the bend What road will take us home?
true di - rec - tions are de - nied. Keep on, you're head - ing home.
trust is lost in ev - 'ry heart And hope can find no home.
God is not al - read - y there. Reach out, and you are home.
